

Peter Bang

Attorney-at-Law (H), Partner

Mobile +45 29 99 30 25
Direct +45 36 94 12 92
Email pvb@plesner.com

Peter is a partner in Plesner's Litigation team. He has extensive experience in all aspects of dispute resolution and appears regularly before Danish courts and arbitration tribunals in Denmark and internationally.

PRACTICE AREAS

Arbitration
Corporate Criminal Law
Defence and National Security
Investigations
Litigation

He has appeared regularly in complex cases involving a wide range of commercial law for more than 20 years since his admission to the Danish Supreme Court.

In his practice, Peter is particularly focused on professional services disputes, D&O liability, and insolvency-related litigation.

Apart from acting as counsel in arbitration cases, Peter is also a certified arbitrator, and he frequently acts as such.

Peter has lectured on the law of evidence at the University of Copenhagen's Master of Laws program and has authored a variety of articles and books on dispute resolution topics.

He has management experience from acting as a board member of Danish limited liability companies and from a range of leadership positions with the Royal Danish Air Force reserves, where he holds the rank of colonel.

Selected cases

- Represented private landowner before the Supreme Court against a state entity

- Successful before the Supreme Court in compulsory acquisition case
- Successful before the Supreme Court in numerous avoidance and clawback cases
- Represented British directors before the Supreme Court in directors' liability case
- Successful in numerous bank liability cases before the Supreme Court
- Successful before the Supreme Court in distribution agreement rescission case
- Represented college before the Supreme Court in real estate ownership dispute

Ratings

most recent Lexology Index

Peter Bang is Recommended as regards Commercial Litigation.